New Skirt For 1866.

The Great Invention of the Age in HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION consists of DUPLEX (or two) ELLIPTIC PURE REFINED STEEL SPRINGS, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable SPRING ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Spring, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful Shape more than twice as long as any single spring skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promonade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

The Hoops are covered with 2-ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps etc, etc, which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

To the Citizens of North-Carolina.

The termination of a sanguinary contest, which for the past four years has presented an impassable barrier to all social or commercial intercourse between the two great sections of our country, having at length happily cleared away all obstacles to a removal of those relations which formerly bound us together in a fraternal union, I take the earliest opportunity afforded me by this auspicious event, to greet my Southern friends, and to solicit from them a renewal of that extensive business connection which for a quarter of a century has been uninterrupted save by the great public calamity to which I have adverted.

It is scarcely necessary, on the threshold of a business re-union, I should repeat the warning so often given to my friends,—to beware of all those spurious and deleterious compounds which, under the specious and false titles of Imported Wines, Brandies, Holland Gin, Liquors, &c., have been equally destructive to the health of our citizens as prejudicial to the interests of the legitimate Importer.

Many years of my past life have been expended in an open and candid attempt to expose these wholesale frauds; no time nor expense has been spared to accomplish this salutary purpose, and to place before my friends and the public generally, at the lowest possible market price, and in such quantities as might suit their convenience, a truly genuine imported article.

Twenty-five years' business transaction with the largest and most respectable exporting houses in France and Great Britian have afforded me unsurpassed facilities for supplying our home market with Wines, Liquors, and Liqnures of the best and most approved brands in Europe, in addition to my own distillery in Holland for the manufacture of the "Schiedam Schnapps."

The latter, so long tested and approved by the medical Faculties of the United States, West Indies and South America as an invaluable Therapeutic, a wholesome, pleasant, and perfectly safe beverage in all climates and during all seasons, quickly excited the cupidity of the home manufacturers and venders of a spurious article under the same name.

I trust that I have, after much toil and expense, surrounded all my importations with safeguards and directions which with ordinary circumspection will insure their delivery, as I receive them from Europe, to all my customers.

I would however, recommend in all cases where it is possible, that orders be sent direct to my Depot, 22 Beaver Street, New York, or that purchases be made of my accredited agents.

In addition to a large stock of Wines, Brandies, &c. in wood, I have a considerable supply of old tried foreign wines, embracing vintages of many past years, bottled up before the commencement of the war, which I can especialy recommended to all connaisseurs of these rare luxuries.

In conclusion, I would especially call the earley attention of my Southern customers to the advantage to be derived by transmitting their orders without loss of time, of time, or calling personally at the Depot, in order to inshure the fulfilment of their favors from the present large and well selected assortment.

THE DAILY GAZETTE, SALISBURY, N. C.—We have received the first number of the Daily Gazette, published by John S. Hampton & Co., with Dr. W. H Cole as editor, at Salisbury, N. C. It is a handsome journal, neatly printed, and conducted in an able manner. Its editor is well known in North Carolina, and in fact from the Potomac to the Rio Grande, as an honored soldier of Lee—as an accomplished writer, and as a gentleman of position and rising influence in the State. Advertisers will find it a good medium for advertising, as it is published in the center of a rich district at the junction of the W. N. C. with the Central N. C. Railroad.

We clip the above from the New York Daily News. It is exceedingly complimentory to our friends of the Gazette. We endorse it, but in doing so, we confess that the style savors somewhat of familiarity. But we publish it, notwithstanding, in order that our contemporary may have the full benefit of it.

It will be seen that our very worthy contemporary has become famous, for unlike many great prophets who "are not without honor save in their own country" his fame as the Editor of the Gazette has even reached Ben Wood Copperhead Editor in New York. Can't the Doctor furnish us a recipe for making reputation so easy? Our surprise, while only equalled by our gratification, originates not so much from Bro. COLE's ability to make reputation when he does write, as for any one to make a National reputation, as an Editor who writes two articles in about twenty issues. Of course Ben Wood knows how to appreciate a paper—and we may fairly locate the Gazette at last.

Death of an Editor.

JAMES FULTON, Sr. Editor of the Wilmington Journal, is no more. He died at his residence in Wilmington last Thursday after noon of a congestive chill. He leaves no peer in the public Journalism of our State. That he was a gentleman of genius and great attainments, is admitted by all. His manly style of composition and pungent wit, enabled him to exercise an influence on the public mind second to no editor of our acquaintance. His death is a public calamity.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, writes:

Few people understand that the present ways and means is a very different thing from what it has been heretofore. Last season a rule was adopted by the House, dividing the duties of that committee into three parts, and providing for a committee for each. That for one part was to retain the name of ways and means," that for the second part was to be called the committee on appropriations;" that for the last was to be called the committee on "banks and banking."

Some have maintained that the most important of these was the committee of "ways and means," and therefore, Mr. Morrill, its chairman, ranked Thaddeus Stevens, the chairman of the committee on appropriations." Such, however, is not the fact. "appropriations" being regarded in the House as of more interest or importance than the increasing or diminishing of the rate of taxation, which is the business of Mr. Morrill's committee. The latter, however, is important enough to the people at large. Mr. Stevens would naturally, by his great ability and experience, be leader of his side, even if he were not on any committee. But Mr. Morrill has been the working man in getting up the late revenue income and excise tax bills. His name was given to a revenue bill which was adopted half a dozen years ago.

Whether the recent victory of the conservatives in the Senate caucus shall turn to "Dead Sea fruits," depends upon their own course. They might be wise as serpents and harmless as doves. Under the last administration, to say aught against its acts, was treason more or less. But now men of the worst stamp in Congress must be tolerated in the most violent concerted schemes against Andrew Johnson. But impertable and persistent advocacy of right and reason must prevail. Such, doubtless, will be the President's course. The slow and sure, in time, get on. The stake is too great for intemperate action. Good men must be hopeful and firm.

Another correspondent of the same journal, says:

Thaddeus Stevens' resolution proscribing eleven States of the Union from any participation in the affairs of the Union for an indefinite period of time met with vigorous opposition to-day in the Senate upon the proposition to amend the same as agreed upon in caucus, so as to prevent the exclusion of representatives from such States. Senator Doolittle argued that the passage of the resolution would accomplish what the people of the elven late insurgent States, with an immense sacrifice of life had failed to do—to dissolve the Union. The resolution was so amended as to leave each body at any time to admit members from any State not now represented.

ADMISSION OF SOUTHERN MEMBERS.

The Union members of the Senate have held several caucuses on the joint resolution adopted by the House concerning the admission of members from States lately in rebellion. After a warm discussion, it was declared this afternoon to strike out the last clause of the resolution, which prohibits action on the credentials of members until the report of the committee shall have been finally acted on. As now proposed, therefore, the resolution will simply provide for the appointment of a joint committee to consider and report upon the political condition of the Southern States. It will also be made a concurrent instead of joint resolution, so it will not require the President's sanction. It is understood that both Houses will await the action of this committee, and also that this committee will not delay action unseasonably. The President is known to be anxious for the speedy admission of the delegation from Tennessee, and it is by no means impossibl that a special exception may be made of the case of that State.

There was tacit understanding that all action upon credentials and the admission of Southern men here is to be deferred until the committee shall have reported. The result is deemed satisfactory by both the so-called Conservatives and the so called Radical Republicans of the Senate.

[Provides that the Wardens of the poor shall meet at such other places besides the court houses as may be agreed upon by a majority of said Wardens.

An engrossed bill authorizing the construction of a bridge across the French Broad river, in the county of Buncombe passed its several readings and ordered to be enrolled.

An engrossed bill, to amend an act ratified 29th January, 1849, in reference to amending the charter for building a bridge across Pasquotank river, on motion of Mr. Ferebee, under a suspension of the rules, passed its several readings and ordered to be enrolled.

A message was sent to the House of Commons on motion of Mr. Cowles, proposing to go forthwith into the election of six Counsellors of State, in which the House concurred and the Senate voted as follows:

Mr. Ferebee from the committee to confer with the Commissioners to prepare a code for the freedmen reported as follows, viz:

The joint select committee appointed for that purpose, have conferred with the Commissioners authorized by an ordinance of the late Convention of the State, to prepare and present a code of laws for the government of freedmen and offer the following report, and ask the concurrence of the General Assembly.

The present session of the General Assembly, now within a few days of its close, does not afford the time and opportunity necessary for the consideration and discussion of the many and complicated subjects which properly arise in the preparation of such a code. The sudden change in the condition of the negro from slavery to freedom, renders it difficult properly to devise and prepare a code that will be best suited to protect their interests, and to promote their welfare. Time and thought are, necessary to this end.

The experience and action also of our sister States may be brought to us in a few weeks, and may shed much light upon the subject to guide and support us.

As the Legislature will re-assemble early in February next, the committee with the concurrence and advice of the Commission appointed to prepare said code, are of opinion that the subject can, with more convenience and wisdom, be considered and matured at that time.

The committee, therefore, do accordingly recommend, that the further action of the General Assembly on this subject be possponed until the re assembling of the same in February next, and that to that session the Commission be requested to make their report.

All of which is respectfully submitted and concurrence asked.

D. D. FEREBEE,
Chairman.

The Senate concurred in the report.

Mr. Howard introduced a resolution instructing the committee on the Judiciary, to inquire into the propriety of providing by law that all wills executed before the 1st day of May 1865, be null and void, when the testator or testatrix has become non compos, and report by bill or otherwise. The resolution was adopted.

Messrs Gorrell, Harris of Rutherford and McEachren were appointed on the committee on enrolled bills for the week.

The bill to establish a Homestead freehold, introduced by Mr. McCleese, was laid on the table.

An engrossed bill to amend an act entitled an Act to appoint tax collectors for Bertie and other counties, passed its several readings and ordered to be enrolled.

A bill to carry in or effect the ordinance of the Convention in regard to the election of Clerks and Sheriffs, passed its scond reading.

The bill to amend an act to incorporate the Little River Turnpike, passed its several readings and was ordered to be engrossed.

An engrossed bill to provide for the payment of the public debt, was postponed on motion of Mr. Wiggins until 1st Monday in February.

Special Order.

The special order now came up for consideration, viz.: "a bill for the relief of the holders of State Bonds issued since 20th of May 1861, under the act ratiffed 16th of February, 1861, entitled "an act to secure the completion of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad company, and amend its charter.

The bill was put on its second reading, and pending the discussion of amendment proposed by Mr. Faircloth of Wayne, a message was received from the Senate, proposing that the two Houses proceed forthwith to the election of six councillors of State. The Hous concurring proceeded to vote, the names of Messrs. Yellowly, McLean and Davidson, having been withdrawn.

Having voted, the House resumed the Special Order, the question being on the adoption of amendments offered by Mr. Faircloth of Wayne. (These amendments in effect, limits the benefits of the bill to the company, excluding those bond holders who bougt their bonds at nominal prices, during the war, from the proposed substitution of bonds payable in U. S. currency for those originally issued.

After a protracted discussion, mainly upon the merits of the bill, in which Messrs. Faircloth of Wayne, Cowan and Smith of Hertford, urged its passage, and Messrs. Caldwell and Henry of Bertie opposed it, the amendments were adopted.

Mr. Craige moved to amend by adding the following section:

"Be it further enacted. That the Public Treasurer be, and is hereby authorized to issue to the Western N. C. Railroad Company, one million of dollars in bonds, under the same rules and regulations as provided in the bill." Not adopted.

The bill was further amended on motion of Mr. Smith of Hertford, by striking out all after the word "prescribed," in the 11th line of the 1st section, and inserting instead the following provisor

"Provided, That the Public Treasurer shall apply the coupons due on bonds of the said Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad Company, held by the State, in payment of coupons due on such bonds of the State as may be surrendered for exchange, under the provisions of this act."

The question recurring on the passage of the bill on its second reading, the yeas and nays were ordered on motion of Mr. Sharpe, and resulted as follows:

Yeas, 54; nays, 54.

The Speaker voted in the affirmative, so the bill passed its second reading.

Mr Hutchison from the committee that superintended the election for six councilors of State reported: Whole number of votes cast 148, necessary to a choice 75. Mr. Lemly received 116, Mr. Russel 88, and J. J. Yeates 77. No others elected.

Waugh from the committee appointed to wait on the Governor elect, and ascertain at what time before the recess of the Assembly, he would appear before the two Houses and take the oath of office, reported that they had discharged that duty, and that the Governor elect had designated the hour of noon on Friday next.

The House adopted the report and then adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Congressional.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Senate—Mr. Brown offered a resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to enquire into the expediency of providing by law for the adoption of the eight hour system of all labor within the jurisdiction of Congress wherever practicable.

Mr. Foote announced the death of Hon. Jacob Collamer, concluding by offering the usual resolutions of respect to the memory of the deceased.

House.—In the House the following committee was announced to enquire into the condition of the late so-called Confederate States: Mr. Stevens of Pennsylvania, Washburne of Illinois, Morrill of Vermont, Grider of Kentucky, Bingham of Ohio, Conkling of New York, Boutwell of Massachusetts, Blow of Missouri, Rogers of New Jersey.

The House resolved that the Senate concurring, the two Houses adjourn from December 20th.

The House passed a bill appropriating thirty thousand dollars for repairing and refurnishing the White House; also a bill appropriating over fifteen million for the payment of invalid and other pensions.

They resolved that all papers which are offered in relation to representation of the late so-called Confederate States of America, or either of them, shall be referred to the joint committee of fifteen members without debate; and no members shall be admitted from either of the said so-called States until Congress shall declare such States, or either of them entitled to representation.

Several eulogies were delivered on the death of the late Senator Collamer.

Mr. Henderson of Oregon, offered the following which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That treason against the Government of the United Stntes is a crime that ought to be punished.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Official information has been received at the State Department of the ratification of the anti-slavery amendment by Oregon.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The Confederate bonds resolution in the Senate was drawn up, I understand, because of the fact that has recently transpired that large purchases of these bonds had been made on the supposition that the United States would some day or other assume their payment in full or in part. The basis of this belief, I am told, the impression and opinion of influential legal talent, that as a receiver of the assets of the Confederacy the U. S ates is responsible for the liabilities thereof. The Judiciary Committee will consider the resolution at an early day.

The impression prevails here that Earl Russell, when he fully digests Secretary Seward's reply to England's refusal to submit the question of damages growing out of the depredations of the anglo-rebel pirate on American commerce to a commission appointed jointly by the American and English Governments, he will reconsider his decision, and ask to submit the whole matter to arbitration.

Several Paymasters left here to day with funds to pay off troops now on duty in Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia and Alabama.

An order has been issued by the Adjutant General of Mississippi, to captains of militia companies recently orgauized, directing them to disarm negroes within the radius of their company limits.—The order is said to arise from Gen. Humphrey And while it urges the abstinence of all violence in its execution, it directs the employment of such force as shall be necessary to put down any efforts resistance on the part of the negroes that may be of made.

This orderder is an important one, and is denounced by a certain set as an outrage upon colored veterans who aided in the overthrow of the rebellion.

Washington, Dec. 14.—It is said that Stanton declines to deliver the Lincoln Eulogy. Beecher said in a lecture last night, if he had been President last May, he would have insisted on negro suffrage in the South. The views of Banks, on the Mexican question, are understood to be conservative. He will agree with Raymond, who is second on the committee. They will both support the foreign policy of the Administration.

The Comptroller of the Treasury desires attention called to the fact that certain parties in this city are endeavoring to raise, by means of a contribution of the various national banks, a corruption fund of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars for the purpose of subsiding certain members of Congress, in order to secure the passage of an amendment to the currency act, giving these banks the benefit of their lost circulation. This scheme Mr. Clark discountenances altogether, and recommends that the banks which have already contributed their quota, immediately demand the refunding of the money advanced for so dishonorable a purpose.

The following is the committee on the part of the House to enquire into the condition of the late Confederate States; Messrs. Stevens, of Penn., Washburn, of Ill., Morrill, of Vermont, Grider, of Ky., Bingham, of Ohio, Conkling, of New York, Boutwell, of Mass., Blow, of Mo., and Rogers, New Jersey.

Washburn, of Ill., introduced a resolution for an adjournment of Congress over the holidays. This was, after debate, amended so as to fix the time from the 20th of December to the 9th of January, and passed.

From Mexico.

New York, Dec. 14.—Latest advices from Mexico sum up thus: From 20th to 30th of November 7,200 additional French troops had arrived at Vera Cruz. 3,000 more are daily looked for.

There were heavy arrivals from France of war munitions.

Nothwithstanding these accessions, the Vera Cruz correspondent writes that she prospects of the Imperialists are gloomy.

The last instalment of troops brought the cholera to Vera Cruz.

Juarez writes from San Francisco, under date of the 03th, to the Mexican Consul here, stating that the reason for ordering Ortega's trial was because he left Mexico without permission, virtually abandoning the republican struggle.

He adds, my family and private interests both incline to retire to private life as soon as an election can be held. I will cheerfully give up the Presidency, which has proved to me such a weighty burden.

New York letters from Matamoras to the 26th Nov. state that, in every attack made by the Liberals, under Cortinas, they have been badly whipped, and fragments of the Liberal army finally took refuge in Brownsville.

Vera Cruz letters to the 2d state that the Liberals are publicly making enlistments in the streets of Brownsville. Inducements are offered to white and black Americans to sack Matomoras as soon as captured.

A conspiracy to assassinate Mejia had been discovered. Foor American officers were implicated. Two were captured with proof upon their persons. The other two escaped to the American side. The captured ones were hung.

The Tribune says Gen. Grant will make a trip to the military posts on the Rio Grands.

From Georgia.

Milledgeville, December 14.—Provisional Governor Johnson has sent to the Legislature a despatch received from President Johnson, saying that the Governor elect will be inaugurated in a few days, and he would receive instructions in regard to being relieved, suggesting that he would issue no commissions to members of Congress, but leave that for the incoming Governor.

It is understood that Governor Jenkins, desires to know his real status before taking his seat.

Louisville, Dedember 14.—The following resolution was introduced to-day in the House of Delegates and referred to the Commitee of Federal Relations:

Resolved, That this Assembly heartily approve the action of the last General Assembly in rejecting the proposed amendment of the Constitution of the United States, and believes the vote to be a finality, and that this Assembly has no right or authority to consider or vote upon this measure untill it shall be again proposed by Congrss.

☞ They kill hogs by steam in Chicago. A great iron claw, with five fingers, hooks out the pigs which are quarreling in the pen below, and lifts the porkers to a gibbet near by, and then plunges them into scalding water. By this machine fifty porcines are killed, scalded, cleaned, split and hung in rows ready for salting within an hour.

Our Poor.

The little "sciff" of snow which covered the ground on yesterday morning, should remind us that Winter, dreary winter is upon us, and that there are many poor and destitute, and in many instances rendered so by the War. Let us not neglect them, for while we are all poor, in a broad use of the word, yet there are many so much poorer than others—so steeped in abject poverty and misery that we should do something, however little it may be. All negroes who have not left their former masters will doubtless be as comfortably provided for as ever, and those who have and are suffering will most likely be provided for by Aid Societies at the North. We earnestly trust that the North will establish these Societies in every neighborhood and town. We may possibly prevent the white poor from starving and freezing, if our Northern brethren will take care of the helpless an indigent blacks. Their suffering in many instances, is the remote, if not the direct, effect of sudden emancipation. The poor slave had never any occasion to provide for the future; he had always looked in the sunshine of the present, and when cold or difficulty came, he always found a protector and a friend. As these poor, untutored, and thriftless race have been set free by the North before they could learn other ways, we think they ought to march up manfully to aid in their destitution.

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday 2d January next.

Confidently relying upon the hearty suport which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense, in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the CHURCH, also, partake of this progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies, brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the CHURCH to the importance and necessity of WORK: of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us both the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all that we hope for on the earth.

To the People of the South!

THE OLD

"EXAMINER" REVIVED!!

The undersigned, having purchased its good will and subscription books, proposes to revive, at an early day, the old Richmond Examiner, of which the late John M. Daniel was editor-in-chief, and the undersigned his constant associate for the entire period of the war.

It is believed that the public will recognize an appropriate and practical idea in his enterprise.—Effort to revive other papers in the South are announced, and it is certainly neither a visionary nor unworthy endeavour for the literary associates of a gallant spirit that now sleeps in the grave to essay honour to his memory and a service to the public by reviving the old Examiner newspaper, so long the ornament of Southern letters, an example at once of the scholarship and chivalry of Virginia; and perhaps the only school in the South of pure and classick English distinct from the models and redeemed from the innovations of Northern instructors.

The fame of the old Richmond Examiner reached to the most distant parts of the world. The paper was well known in Europe. It was pronounced by a distinguished Northern politician "the best exponent of the civilization of the South." It was a school of literary scholarship for the youth of the South; the glass of Southern chivalry; an example of independence, of courage, of iron spirit in newspaper literature, which its chief illustrated in his own noble and severe life, and defended more than once on the field of honor, when the undersigned stood with in the vindication of the freedom of the press.

Surely there are many people in the South who will unite in an effort to revive a newspaper which was an ornament to its literature and a school for its virtues. The task is an ambitious one. But the undersigned attempts it in no mean or flagging spirit. He has already undertaken to marshal a corps of the old writers for the Examiner; he will be able to reproduce its typographical features, and present to Southern readers a fac simile of their old acquaintance; and he fervently trusts and resolutely pledges every resource of intellect and will to breathe again in this form of material resurrection the same spirit of fearless criticism, chivalrous contest and unhesitating encounter with abuse that animated it of old.

The undersigned owns some pledges of affection in this enterprise. His relations with the late John M. Daniel was close, intimate and affectionate to the day of his death. And it will indeed be a labor and aspiration of love if he can produce some echo from the grave of lamented friendship and rekindle from the ashes of the past and the dead some of the fire that illuminated the familiar pages of our literature.

In the present uncertainty of political questions—the dissappointment of old issues and the imperfect development of the new—it would, of course, be impossible to state with precision the political career of the Examiner. But this may be said with safety; that it will use all its influence in restoring order, tranquility and prosperity to the people; and while aspiring to be brave and independent, it will avoid every scheme of faction and disorganization, devote itself to the works of conservatism, and sustain, at every risk, the present President of the United States as long as he fulfills those noble indications he has already given of planting again the rights of constitutional liberty in the South, setting his face against the Malignants of the North, and thus entitling himself to such common support of conservative men in all parts of the country as will secure the continuation of his wise and patriotic administration.

No pains or expense will be spared to make the Examiner the newspaper of the South. For every department of it the services of the most accomplished and active writers will be secured. Special correspondents will be posted in New York and Washington and other important centres of intelligence in the country. A former active editor of the old Examiner, Edward A. Pollard, will be employed as correspondent from Europe in which country he proposes to write a History of the War, and to form a familiar acquaintance with the politics of Europe, especially in connection with American questions and topicks. This correspondence will constitute a special feature of interest in our paper; it will enliven its columns from week to week with the productions of an animated pen; and it will afford our readers a singularly good opportunity to make themselves acquainted with cotemporary Europe, and to apprehend the growing interest of our foreign relations.

The undersigned was recently the editor of the Richmond Times, but in consequence of a disagreement with the part proprietor of that paper, he has been forced to leave it and appeal to the civil courts for his rights; and he now proposes to himself the nobler task of reviving a paper endeared to the South by many memories of the past, and associated with so much that is admirable in its heroick and literary name in history. He calls upon the old subscribers of the Examiner, from Virginia to Texas, to rally to its support, to renew their subscriptions, and to assist in the revival of a paper which has existed for three-quarters of a century, and which has ever been solicitous to honor truth and virtue, prompt to chastise abuses, and ambitious to defend and adorn the civilization and literature o the South.

Advertisements will be inserted on the same terms as published by the other Richmond papers.

The first number of the Examiner will contain a sketch of the life of the late John M. Daniel, whose name is historical in connection with the Virginia press, and than whom the annals of newspaper literature in America show few more extraordinary men—certainly no greater master of vigor and satire in composition. The first numbers will also contain a full and complete account of the evacuation of Richmond, with all the particulars of the surrender of the city, the entry of the troops, the great conflagration, &c., taken from the advance sheets of E. A. Polard's "Fourth Year of the War," now in press. This account will be found intensely interesting; and aside from this consideration, every one should secure and preserve these numbers, as they will be valuable hereafter as affording a true and faithful report of what the South has had hitherto but the imperfect narratives which have been written and published in the Northern press.

The old contributors and correspondents of the Examiner are particularly requested to communicate with the undersigned.

H. RIVES POLLARD,
Richmond, Va.

Wanted, an Agent in every town in Virginia and all the Southern States.

Also, immediately, twenty active and enterprising men to travel and canvass for the paper—a fine chance for men out of employment. H. R. P.

NOTICE.

MODEL SEWING MACHINE.

(From the New York Herald)

Prominent among the mechanical triumphs of this most ingenious age, common honesty compels us to notice the Empire Sewing Machine, commended as justly styled perfection itself. Useful as have been the various sewing machines, from time to time presented to the public, each one of them has been cursed with some radical defect, which detracts from general utility. Warned by the experience of his predecessors, the inventor of the Empire Machine has produced an instrument, combining all the advantages for which others are vaunted, and obviating every defect which can be attributed to them by the most fastidious critic.

The Empire Machine is a marvellous combination of simplicity, economy and perfect workmanship, being durable, free from liability to get out of order, noiseless, and easy of operation. its mechanical contrivance is such as to secure stability, freedom from accident, and accuracy as to workmanship. By the use of the patented shuttle and straight needle, it makes a stitch, which can neither rip nor ravel, at the same time, it can operate perfectly upon every species of material from leather to cambric, with threads of cotton, linen or silk, from the finest to the coarsest number.

As the Empire Machine is gradually supplanting its more antique rivals, no one in want of a useful instrument of this description, be he or she tailor, coachmaker, dressmaker or seamstress, can do otherwise than secure one of these economical and inimitable machines, suited alike for family and manufacturing purposes. The office of the Empire Manufacturing Co. is at No. 536 Broadway, New York City, where they are now supplying these Empire Machines a prices far below the real value of the instrument.—New York Herald.

through the canal without difficulty, as they were built expressly for the trade. They are fitted up with STATE ROOMS and BERTHS capable of accommodating thirty-five passengers. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of passengers, who will not be subject to the inconvenience of transfer to other vessels, but will be taken through direct without change.

The tables of the steamers are liberally supplied with the best the market affords. Families travelling will find it to their interest to take this line, as they will thereby escape the danger and discomfort of a sea route, and the fatigue of railroad travel.

On the 15th of December next, if the business of the line warrants it, the steamer WILLIAMS will be put on the route, and tri-weekly trips will be made.

For freight or passage apply to WHITFORD, DILL & CO., New Berne, N. C.
